2. Principal's Report - Jay Salter:
  - a. Campus Changes - fencing and gates should be finishing up in the next two weeks. The gates will lock at 8am and reopen at 2pm. The doors at the front office are almost complete. School zone flashers have been installed. Some parking spots in the lower parking area may open up soon. Parking for visitors is a challenge.
  - b. Course selection is currently happening for next year. New science and math options are available for next year. We will be adding a new art teacher next year. We have a new counselor, Mrs. Brown, who has replaced Mrs. Barmus who moved to Spanish Springs.
  - c. We have 1300 students enrolled, we take all requested variances and did not lose any teacher allocations.
  - d. Asked for feedback on Wednesday emails and discussed adding more specific details and eliminating or defining jargon used in communications.
3. President's Report - No Updates
4. Treasurer's Report - Handed out Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss
5. Committee Reports:
  - a. Membership - Megan & Kimberly
    - i. Received new membership and donations totalling $1250.00 with $940.00 going to our general fund
    - ii. Plan on selling merch on Feb 5th basketball games

- b. Teacher Appreciation - Heather
    - i. Had "snack attack" in January.
    - ii. Planning on serving donuts on Feb 13th.
  - c. Senior Activities - Heather
    - i. Dough Boys donated 200 donuts! Heather is sending a thank you card.
    - ii. February's event is pizza and conversation hearts.
  - d. Scholarship - No Updates
6. New Business - Heather & MichelleP: We need to have our board and committee members decide on staying or moving out of current positions. We need to have roles defined by the March meeting. We would like to have some roles, like President, have a shadow in place for next year, as Michelle is committing to serving for 2026/2027 only.
7. Meeting adjourned 6:30pm
